

Dear recent and expected School of Education and Social Policy (SESP) graduates,

Save the date for SESP graduation!

SESP's 2022 graduation (known as Convocation) will take place on Monday, June 13 from 1 to 3 p.m. CT in Ryan Fieldhouse (not the football stadium). A reception will immediately follow the ceremony. The SESP community will be there to welcome you and your guests and celebrate your achievements! We will be following all state and local public health guidelines as we plan this celebration, and your name will be read whether you decide to participate in-person or remotely.

The SESP planning team, in coordination with the University, is working hard on celebration details and logistics. Please watch for emails coming from this address; it's important to respond to our requests by the stated deadlines. In the coming weeks and months, you will be receiving much more information about RSVPing, cap and gown, ticketing, and other elements of the celebration.

SESP's Convocation page will be the official source for all things related to SESP graduation. Please bookmark the page and share it with possible guests:
<https://www.sesp.northwestern.edu/convocation.html> The page will be updated in the coming weeks and months.

Note: Expected December 2022 graduates can participate in 2022 or 2023 celebrations. To opt out of receiving more communication about 2022 graduation, reply to this message with "unsubscribe me" in the subject line, and please confirm that you will not be attending 2022 graduation.

Questions about SESP graduation? Reply to this message or email Ken Powers at sesp2022convocation@northwestern.edu.

The SESP graduation planning team wishes you health and safety, and we look forward to celebrating you in June. The spirit that bonds us as a community in SESP will be alive and well as we share the #SESPlove!

Sincerely,

The SESP graduation planning team