

Name:	ID#	Date:
SS: Economics
Students must have 11 Economics courses with at least 5 courses at the 300 level. A 3.0 GPA in the teaching subject must be maintained. No grade below a C is acceptable
Course	Term	Grade
Three Introductory Courses:
ECON 201: Introduction to Macroeconomics
ECON 202: Introduction to Microeconomics
ECON 281: Introduction to Applied Economics
Three Advanced Core Courses
Econ 310-1: Microeconomics
Econ 310-2: Microeconomics
Econ 311: Macroeconomics
Five additional econ courses. At least two must be at the 300 level
SESP students are required to obtain a minor in US history. Other candidates choose 7 history courses, 4 of which are US history. History 210-1&2 are recommended as are Euro Civ History 201-1 & 2		